

Arvoisa vastaanottaja!

EU maiden tuki Ukrainalle rakoilee. Puola, Unkari ja nyt viimeksi Slovakia, viime viikkoisten vaalien jälkeen, ovat irtisanoutuneet sotilaallisesta avusta Ukrainaan. Jää nähtäväksi miten EU suhtautuu näihin maihin. Yhdysvaltojen senaatti päätti sunnuntaina olla kirjaamatta budjettilakiinsa Ukrainan-tukea.

Länsi tyhjentää vanhaa, vaarallista käyttökelvotonta sotilaskalustoa Ukrainaan.

RAND CORPORATION - 2023 - Understanding the Risk of Escalation in the War in Ukraine

Key Findings

Russian President Vladimir Putin's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 has imposed devastating losses on the Russian military and on Ukraine's military and civilian populations, but both sides have avoided certain escalatory options. Putin has been restrained for several reasons, including fear of NATO's military response; an information flow that filters out negative facts, promoting the view that Russia can win a protracted war; and incremental increases in NATO support for Ukraine...

AP – October 1, 2023 - Ukraine aid is dropped from government funding bill. That raises questions about future US support

Congressional supporters of Ukraine say they won't give up after a bill to keep the federal government excluded President Joe Biden's request to provide more security assistance to the war-torn nation.

Still, many lawmakers acknowledge that winning approval for Ukraine assistance in Congress is growing more difficult as the war between Russia and Ukraine grinds on. Republican resistance to the aid has been gaining momentum in the halls of Congress...

4. Defend Democracy Press – September 30, 2023 - Thousands of Ukrainian Troops Surrender via Russian Radio Hotline

Amid Kiev's botched counteroffensive, which has shown no progress since its initiation in early June, there is a growing number of Ukrainian soldiers opting to surrender by raising a white flag.

Clayton Morris, an American journalist, has expressed his astonishment at a series of videos showcasing the significant surrender of Ukrainian armed forces (UAF) servicemen. This surrender was seen even through the utilization of a newly established Russian radio frequency.

"This is amazing. This is a story the Western media does not want you to see," Morris said on his YouTube channel, referring to "tens of thousands of Ukrainian soldiers laying down the weapons and surrendering to the Russian troops."...

Jeffrey D. Sachs serves as the Director of the Center for Sustainable Development at Columbia University, where he holds the rank of University Professor, the university's highest academic rank. Sachs was Director of the Earth Institute at Columbia University from 2002 to 2016.

We will never know the world that could have been had President John F. Kennedy's assassination never taken place, but an inkling of how things could have been different can be found in the final months of his life. In his new book, To Move the World: JFK's Quest for Peace, Jeffrey Sachs unearths JFK's final political campaign—to establish a secure and lasting peace with the Soviet Union. How far did JFK's efforts go? What sort of progress was made on ending the Cold War, not through the collapse of the Soviet Union, but rather through mutual cooperation and understanding?

How does all this relates to the Ukraine war?

To answer these questions and more, Jeffrey Sachs joins The Chris Hedges Report.

Defend Democracy Press – September 24, 2023 - How people in Ukraine are declared state traitors – the mechanism of the repressive machine's work

Recently, we often, almost every day, read in the Ukrainian news or hear on TV about "state traitors" exposed by the Security Service of Ukraine or the State Bureau of Investigation and prosecutors, whom they suspect of anti-state activities and treason. As a rule, "traitors" include well-known public figures, politicians or public figures who disagree with the government's policy, criticize it, speak out against war and for peace, reveal corrupt motives and meanings of the current regime. More rarely – ordinary citizens for absolutely minor "offenses": posts in social networks, likes (approvals), public statements of their opinion, etc.

MAGYAR BÉKEKÖR – September 23, 2023 - Would Hungary be expelled from the European Union if it continued to build its relations with the East?

On Tuesday, an independent group of experts presented a plan to the European Commission on how governments that disagree with the leadership in Brussels can be eliminated from interfering in EU decisions and prevent countries like Hungary from exercising veto rights. The independent experts were commissioned by the French and German governments to develop the plan.

The "multi-speed Europe" would be divided into first-, second-, and third-class member states, and the category that still ran would be called the attractive European Political Community – following the idea of French President Macron.

Defend Democracy Press – September 22, 2023 - UK Military Assistance to Ukraine Could Have Contained Tanks Tainted With 'Deadly Asbestos'

The US and its NATO allies have provided a large number of weapon systems and armored vehicles, many of them outdated, to the Kiev regime to keep the Ukrainian conflict going.

The generous military assistance provided by the UK to the regime in Kiev in the months that followed the escalation of the Ukrainian conflict in February 2022 might have included armored vehicles riddled with asbestos, a British newspaper has suggested...

Defend Democracy Press – September 18, 2023 - The Baerbockisation of the West

Some of the main causes of the West's current institutional instability can be detected in how individuals behave, which is then reflected in group and corporate behaviour. This in turn undermines the quality of our alleged leaders, who no longer seem to have the space to reflect on reality. The speed of digitalisation, greedy globalism, ambition, egotism, and addiction to opioids and narcotics are undermining traditional morality in society. This whole moral maelstrom has resulted in a lack of awareness of history. The teaching of history in western universities is indeed dying. Smartphones are replacing books.

... America's decision to slow China's technological development is akin to the folly revealed by the old cliché: closing the barn door after the horse has bolted. Modern China has shown many times that China's technological development can't be halted...

The US Semiconductor Industry Association (SIA) released a statement on July 17, 2023 saying that Washington's repeated steps "to impose overly broad, ambiguous, and at times unilateral restrictions risk diminishing the U.S.

semiconductor industry's competitiveness, disrupting supply chains, causing significant market uncertainty, and prompting continued escalatory retaliation by China", and called on the Biden administration not to implement further restrictions without more extensive engagement with semiconductor industry representatives and experts...

Global Research – 12 September, 2023 - Zelensky Issues Veiled Threat to Destabilize Europe If Weapons Flow Curtailed

As predicted by a number of independent geopolitical commentators, including ourselves, the emerging official narrative on why Ukraine's counteroffensive ended in failure will be to falsely claim the West didn't provide "enough" weapons in a timely fashion. Despite the literally tens of billions of US taxpayer dollars sunk into Kiev's war effort at record-breaking pace and scale, it will be the "fault" of the United States and its allies—or at least this will be solidified as the Ukrainian government's perspective and narrative (and then will be parroted among Zelensky's most diehard hawkish supporters)...
