

KANSA NOUSEE KADUILLE, NORDSTREAM JA MUUTA

5.10.2022, Nr. 8

Arvoisat vastaanottajat,

Alla olevat kaksi ensimmäistä linkkiä vievät meidät takaisin kammottavaan kylmän sodan aikaan, jolloin maailma oli monesti lähellä uutta maailmansotaa.

Mutta maailma ei ole ottanut opikseen. Elämme juuri nyt – tällä hetkellä – aivan samanlaisia aikoja.

Tänä talvena kadut Euroopassa ja muualla maailmassa tulevat täyttymään ihmisistä, jotka ovat saaneet tarpeekseen. Syynä on päättäjien kyvyttömyys kuunnella kansaa ja asettaa ensisijalle kansalaisten hyvinvoinnin ja oikeuden rauhaan. Alla olevat linkit osoittavat tilanteen kärjistymisen.

Mielenosoitukset, joista alla olevat linkit ovat vain murto-osa, osoittavat, että tämän päivän kehitys on tullut tiensä päähän ja että ihmiset vaativat muutosta parempaan huomiseen.

Asioista vaikeneminen ei ole enää mahdollista!

Toivomme silti avoimen keskustelun vielä olevan saavutettavissa

"In a day when Sputniks dash through outer space and guided ballistic missiles are carving highways of death through the stratosphere, nobody can win a war. The choice today is no longer between violence and nonviolence. It is either nonviolence or nonexistence."

- Martin Luther King, Stride Towards Freedom 1958

On häpeällistä, ettei Suomi NATO lumonsa vuoksi ole allekirjoittanut ydinasekieltosopimusta.

National Public Radio - August 21, 2011 – 30 Years Later, Say Hello To 'Operation Farewell'

Mielenkiintoinen National Public Radion vuonna 2011 tehty haastattelu Ronald Reaganin National Security Advisorin, Richard Allenin kanssa. Allenin mukaan USA räjäytti Siperiassa kaasuputken, josta piti tuoda kaasua Länsi-Saksaan.

Extract:

"Some of the bad CIA code ended up in the control systems of a giant natural gas pipeline the Soviets were building. And in one of the greatest successes of 'Operation Farewell,' that pipeline really did implode in June of 1982.

'It not only imploded, but it exploded, with the force of some five kilotons,' Allen says...

'It was a major contributor, if you will, to breaking the will of the Soviet Union,' Allen says."

Youtube - ARTE Doku - 05.05.2015 - Täuschung - Die Methode Reagan

Sen, mitä Allen sanoo National Public Radiossa, vahvistaa Thomas C. Reedin sanomisen saksalaisessa ARTE dokumenttielokuvassa vuonna 2015. Reed oli presidentti Reaganin neuvonantaja ja kansallisen turvallisuusneuvoston sihteerin William Clarkin neuvonantaja (Allenin seuraaja). Reed oli aiemmin toiminut ilmavoimista vastaavana hallituksen ministerinä, ja hän oli silloin myös tiedustelutoimiston (National Reconnaissance Office) johtaja, jossa eri sotilasyksiköitä koordinoitiin ilmavoimien operaatioita varten. Reed puhuu Siperian räjähdyksestä aivan dokumentin alussa noin 2.30 minuuttiin asti.

Dokumentti käsittelee USA:n kylmän sodan häikäilemätöntä politiikkaa. Presidentti Reaganin noustessa valtaan USA:n kylmän sodan strategia muuttui perusteellisesti: hyökkäys puolustuksen sijaan. Korkea-arvoiset todistajat vahvistavat tässä dokumentissa ensimmäistä kertaa Reaganin salaisen "petosoperaatioiden komitean", olemassaolon. Komitea suunnitteli häikäilemättömiä salaisen palvelun operaatioita Neuvostoliittoa, sekä myös Ruotsin pääministerin Olof Palmen lievennyspolitiikkaa vastaan.

Der Freitag - 39/2022 – 2.10.2022 - Proteste in Ostdeutschland: Diffuse Sympathie für Putins starke Stirn

Ote tekstistä:

"Kuuma syksy, Aschersleben, Grimma, Halberstadt: Natoa ei pidetä vaurauden ja rauhan takuuna Itä-Saksan markkinapaikoilla. Jos kysyt ympäriltäsi, suhde Venäjään on kaksijakoinen ja monet vaativat pakotteiden poistamista Jos haluat tuntea "kuuman syksyn" lämpötilan inflaatiota ja energianpuutetta vastaan, sinun on mentävä Itä-Saksan pieniin kaupunkeihin: Bernburgiin tai Ascherslebeniin, Grimmaan tai Halberstadtin. Täällä he ovat kadulla, joskus muutama sata, joskus 2000 ihmistä. Monet ovat osoittaneet mieltään jo pitkään: tähän talveen asti kyseessä oli koronapolitiikka ja liittotasavallan poliittisen järjestelmän epäonnistumisesta. Kesästä lähtien painopiste on ollut energiakriisissä ja inflaatiossa. Osallistujamäärät ovat edelleen kasvussa."

Ote tekstistä:

"Viimeistään helmikuussa alkaneen Venäjän hyökkäyssodan Ukrainassa ja sen seurauksena Suomen ja Ruotsin Nato-jäsenyyshakemusten myötä tapahtuneen turvallisuuspolitiikan käännekohdan myötä Itämerestä on tullut Venäjän sekä NATO:n merivoimien toiminta-alue.

Tämä näkyy Fehmarnbeltin kautta kulkeneiden sotalaivojen lisääntymisessä viime kuukausina. Tämä koskee sekä venäläisiä ydinsukellusveneitä että Naton yksiköitä...

'USS Kearsarge', joukkojen lippulaiva, on Yhdysvaltain laivaston suurin sotalaiva, joka on toiminut Itämerellä viimeisen 30 vuoden aikana."

Utdrag:

"Samtidigt har Radoslaw Sikorski, en ledamot av Europaparlamentet och en tidigare polsk utrikesminister, tackat USA för att de skadat Nord

Streams rörledning. 'En liten sak, men så mycket glädje', twittrade Sikorski och tillade: Tack, USA.

Sikorski citerade USA:s president Joe Biden som hade hotat den 7 februari, innan Ryssland började sin militära operation i Ukraina, att om Moskva agerade mot Kiev, 'kommer det inte längre att finnas en Nord Stream 2. Vi kommer att avsluta det'. När en reporter bad Biden att förtydliga sa han gåtfullt: 'Jag lovar dig, vi kommer att klara det'."

Irish Examiner, September 25, 2022 – European industry buckles under weight of soaring energy prices

“Volkswagen, Euroopan suurin autonvalmistaja, varoitti viime viikolla, että se voi siirtää tuotantoaan Saksasta ja Itä-Euroopasta, jos energian hinnat eivät laske...

Eurooppa maksaa kaasusta seitsemän kertaa enemmän kuin Yhdysvallat, mikä korostaa maanosan teollisuuden kilpailukyvyn dramaattista heikkenemistä, joka uhkaa aiheuttaa pysyvää vahinkoa sen taloudelle. Kun Venäjän presidentti Vladimir Putin kaksinkertaisti sotaponnistelunsa Ukrainassa, ei ole juurikaan merkkejä siitä, että kaasuvirrat - ja huomattavasti alhaisemmat hinnat - palautuisivat Eurooppaan lähitulevaisuudessa.”

FOCUS ON THE GLOBAL SOUTH – September 20, 2022 - Famine, Food, Fertilizer, Fuel, Finance: The Intersectional Crises of the Ukraine War

Extract:

"The Sanctions Regime: Turkey, Russia, Ukraine and the UN negotiated in June to have the blockade lifted and to monitor the movement of ships. Russian President Vladimir Putin complained that only 2 of the 87 ships that left the freed up ports reached Africa. However, UN reports cite that 25% of the grains from these ports is usually destined for the least developed countries and 25% for the middle income countries; yet much smaller amounts are now reaching them. The sanctions regime imposed by the West may be part of the problem. It is complex, and countries have claimed that it has been manipulated to prioritize the needs of the rich countries..."

Big Agribusiness and Food Prices: There is also the issue of food prices being manipulated by the Big Agribusiness. Food production in Ukraine is now highly monopolized. US corporations like Blackrock, Cargill, Dupont have bought over 30% (17 million acres) of Ukraine's arable land (the size of Italy).[i] 5% is owned by Chinese companies and much of the rest by Ukrainian and Saudi oligarchs. How did this happen?"

EURACTIVE – 2 September, 2022 - Rising energy prices could fuel social unrest across Europe this winter

"Europe's wealthiest nations face rising risks of civil unrest over the winter, including street protests and demonstrations, due to high energy prices and mounting costs of living, according to a risk consultancy firm.

Both Germany and Norway are some of the developed economies experiencing disruptions to everyday life because of labour actions, a trend already seen in the United Kingdom, Verisk Maplecroft's principal analyst Torbjorn Soltvedt told Reuters.

Verisk's latest report on its civil unrest index found more than 50% of the almost 200 countries covered experienced an increase in mass mobilisations risk between the second and the third quarter of 2022, the largest quantity of nations since the firm released the index in 2016."
