BBC – June 25, 2025 - UK to buy nuclear-capable F-35A fighter jets

The UK government is to buy 12 new fighter jets that can be equipped with nuclear bombs, and join Nato's airborne nuclear mission.

Downing Street says the move is "the biggest strengthening of the UK's nuclear posture in a generation".

The new F-35A jets can still carry conventional weapons, but have the option of being equipped with US-made nuclear bombs. ...

DIE WELTWOCHEN – 24. Juni 2025 - Deutschland im Rüstungsfieber: Verteidigungshaushalt soll von 52 Milliarden auf 153 Milliarden wachsen

Der deutsche Verteidigungshaushalt soll von 52 Milliarden Euro im Vorjahr auf 153 Milliarden im Jahr 2029 anwachsen. So hat es SPD-Finanzminister Lars Klingbeil ausgetüftelt. Er schöpft damit die Möglichkeit aus, die ihm der alte Bundestag geschaffen hat, der nach seiner Abwahl eigens dafür noch einmal zusammengekommen war. Und er nähert sich dem von Trump geforderten Nato-Ziel, das die Mitgliedsstaaten darauf einschwört, 5 Prozent ihres Bruttoinlandsprodukts in den Wehretat zu pumpen. ...

EU-Industriestrategie will besseren Zugang der Verteidigungsindustrie zu Finanzmitteln / Anteil an Rüstungsfirmen in europäischen Nachhaltigkeitsfonds nimmt zu / Kritiker: Kriege und Aufrüstung zerstören die Natur – Einstufung von Atomwaffen als „nachhaltig“ ist „Skandal“ ...

... Europaweit suchen Fondsmanager laut „Handelsblatt“ nach Möglichkeiten, „eine Industrie zu finanzieren, deren geopolitische Bedeutung angesichts von Kriegen und einer Verschlechterung der Beziehungen zu den USA zugenommen hat“. Bernhard Führer, Gründer der Vermögensplanungsgesellschaft „Strategy & Plan“, schrieb Ende Mai im österreichischen „Standard“ über einen „wachsenden Zielkonflikt zwischen ethischen Anlagekriterien und den wirtschaftlichen Chancen von Investitionen in die Rüstungsindustrie“. Im Kern geht es dabei um sogenannte ESG-Fonds (Environmental, Social, Governance). Sie richten sich an Investoren, die Wert auf ethische, soziale und ökologische Kriterien legen. Laut Führer sind die ESG-Richtlinien „nicht auf die neuen geopolitischen Realitäten ausgelegt“. ...

France24 – June 21, 2025 -Protesters slam war profiteering, Israel at French air fair

Bobigny (France) (AFP) – Thousands marched on Saturday outside a French trade fair, calling for an end to war profiteering and Israel's offensive in Gaza in the latest demonstration to hit the event.

The long-planned protest at the Paris Air Show outside the French capital also comes as Israel's war with Iran drags on into a ninth day, with Tehran threatening to hit back in force at Israel's offensive against its arch-rival. ...

"Their wars, their profits, our deaths, stop the genocide in Palestine," read the banner at the head of the march, which organisers claimed drew more than 4,000 protesters.

Paul Krugman Substack – June 16, 2025 - Trump's parade flopped. No Kings Day was a hit.

... On Saturday I, along with friends, joined the No Kings Day protest in New York. The protest was huge despite the rain, but I don't know how to estimate crowd sizes. Others do, however. And the poll analyst G. Elliott Morris has worked with a number of independent journalists to produce rough estimates of how many people participated in the protests nationwide, and comes up with a number between 4 and 6 million. That's a huge number. Remarkably, these massive protests were almost entirely peaceful.

Meanwhile, Donald Trump got the military parade he wanted for his birthday. And it was a box-office bust, probably attracting far fewer people than the 250,000 the White House claimed. In fact, the optics were simply embarrassing. As the Washington Post noted, ...

Dutch News – June 15, 2025 - Second Gaza protest in The Hague attracts an even larger crowd

The protest organisers estimated attendance at more than 150,000 people, making it larger than the first Red Line protest held in May. Many of the demonstrators wore red clothing to symbolically draw a “red line”, which they say is something the government had previously refused to do.

The protest was put together by a broad coalition of human rights and pro-Palestinian groups, including Amnesty International, Médecins Sans Frontières, Save the Children, Pax, Oxfam Novib, The Rights Forum and Plant een Olijfboom. ...

The Telegraph – June 15, 2025 - Owen Matthews; Fighting Russia is now Europe’s problem: America is about to leave the stage

Promises of supporting Ukraine ring rather hollow if we continue to give paltry military aid

... So it’s official: Washington is pulling the plug on military aid to Ukraine. At Congressional hearings this week US secretary of defence Pete Hegseth confirmed the Trump administration has a “very different view” of the war in Ukraine to that of Joe Biden’s – and insisted that a “negotiated peaceful settlement is in the best interest of both parties and our nation’s interests.” ... Washington has given Ukraine some $74 billion in military aid since Putin’s invasion in February 2022. ...

Some of the Biden-era packages are still coming down the procurement pipeline. But the bitter bottom line for Kyiv is that it has been abandoned by its most powerful and deep-pocketed ally.

That leaves Ukraine three options. The first is to rely on Europe stepping in to supply the weapons and equipment it needs. The second – proposed earlier this month by Zelensky – was to buy US made weapons from Washington with European money. The third is to make the weapons it needs in Ukrainian factories, funded by money from European allies. ...
