Arvoisa vastaanottaja!

Maailman katseet on käännetty Ukrainan ja Gazan sodista Yhdysvaltojen hyökkäykseen Venezuelaan.

Euroopan johtajat antoivat epämääräisiä ja laimeita vastauksia presidentti Trumpin hyökkäykseen Venezuelaan ja presidentti Nicolás Maduron ja hänen vaimonsa sieppaukseen. Ainoastaan Espanjan pääministeri Pedro Sanchez totesi, että Espanja ei tunnusta Yhdysvaltojen operaatiota ja kutsui sitä kansainvälisen lain rikkomiseksi.

Valkoinen talo ohitti laittomasti kongressin ja näyttää olevan surkean valmistautumaton yllätysotilas operaation jälkimaininkeihin. Demokraatit ovat raivoissaan presidentti Donald Trumpin Venezuelan-suunnitelmista.

Mielenosoittajat ympäri maailmaa tuomitsevat Yhdysvaltojen hyökkäyksen Venezuelaan. Sodanvastaiset mielenosoittajat valtasivat kadut Ankarassa, Brysselissä, Havannassa, Lontoossa, Madridissa, Mexico Cityssä, yli 100 kaupungissa eri puolilla Yhdysvaltoja ja niin edelleen. Linkit 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 ja 17.

EU JA NATO

* Ruotsalainen aktivisti ja runoilija Håkan Östlundhin upea runo "The Chaos Demon" on kirjallinen syyte sodasta, tekopyhydestä, Ruotsin liittymisestä Natoon ja lännen moraaliseen itsepetoksesta. Linkki 16

* Tohtori Daniele Ganser, sveitsiläinen historioitsija ja rauhantutkija, on kirjoittanut kaksi kirjaa, mitkä ovat saaneet lukijat raivoihinsa. "USA: The Ruthless Empire" ja "NATO's Secret Armies: Operation GLADIO and Terrorism in Western Europe". Linkki 29

* Yhdysvaltain entinen kansallisen turvallisuuden neuvonantaja Michael Flynn kirjoittaa: "EU eli Nato (ilman Yhdysvaltoja) haluaa epätoivoisesti sotaa Venäjän kanssa", ja lisää, että "sekä oman hallintomme että kongressin sodanlietsojat haluavat ikuista sotaa". Linkki 27

* Unkarin pääministeri esitti ankaraa kritiikkiä Brysseliä vastaan väittäen, että Euroopan unionin malli on romahtanut ja on viimeisessä vaiheessaan. Linkki 25

* EU on asettanut pakotteita toisinajattelijoita vastaan. Linkki 22

GAZA

* Tiedotusvälineet eivät ole huomioineet, että Trump antoi avoimen tukensa palestiinalaisten laittomalle pakkosiirrolle Gazasta, kun Netanjahu vieraili 29. joulukuuta Trumpin Floridan kiinteistöllä. Tämä on kiistaton sotarikos. Linkki 20

UKRAINA

* Ukrainan korruptiotutkimuksen paljastuminen osoitti, että korruptiotutkintaa jatkettiin arvoasemasta riippumatta – valoisa puoli takaiskusta huolimatta. Ukrainan korruptionvastaiset virastot sanovat, että tapaukseen liittyy järjestäytynyt rikollisryhmä, joka toimii lainsäädäntöelimen ytimessä. Skandaali herättää henkiin pitkäaikaiset huolenaiheet korruptiosta, joka uhkaa Ukrainan EU-tavoitteita ja vaikeuttaa länsimaiden tukea sodan aikana. Linkit 19 ja 21

* Yhdysvaltain kansallisen tiedustelupalvelun johtaja Tulsi Gabbard hyökkäsi voimakkaasti Amerikan liittolaisia vastaan Ukrainan sodan vuoksi. Arizonassa järjestetyssä Arms Fest -tapahtumassa puhunut Gabbard väitti, että Euroopan unioni ja Nato työntävät aktiivisesti Yhdysvaltoja suoraan konfliktiin Venäjän kanssa ja lisäävät jännitteitä sen sijaan, että etsisivät tietä rauhaan. Aftonbladet – 7 januari 2025 - Kanske är Sverige nu ett legitimt mål för Ryssland

Fem centrala frågor för framtida svensk säkerhetspolitik

Linus Hagström, professor i statsvetenskap vid Försvarshögskolan.

... Allt prat om "Väst" är talande då Väst inte existerar som något annat än just identifikation. Föreställningen om något geografiskt och värderingsmässigt mer sammanhängande skyler över motsättningar och spänningar inom det förmenta Väst och producerar en förenklad fantasibild: i Sverige och Europa oftast av något entydigt gott, i Ryssland och Kina av något lika ont. På så sätt har ökad identifikation med Väst bidragit till att förändringar i USA:s globala roll har förbisetts under det senaste decenniet. ...

Medlemskap i en försvarsallians kommer alltid med de dubbla riskerna att bli indragen i krig eller övergiven. Att liera sig med en stat med egna stormaktsambitioner för att hantera en annan stat med liknande anspråk är särskilt paradoxalt. Sverige kan dock inte längre bortse från akuta problem i relation till USA: nedmonteringen av sin demokrati, föraktet för Europa och folkrätten, och hoten mot Nato-allierade. ..

RESPONSIBLE STATECRAFT – January 6, 2025 - Europe whistles past the Venezuelan graveyard

Its tepid response to the US attack reinforces its weakness and undermines the case for defending Ukraine

When Russia invaded Ukraine, the EU high representative for foreign affairs Kaja Kallas said that "sovereignty, territorial integrity and discrediting aggression as a tool of statecraft are crucial principles that must be upheld in case of Ukraine and globally."

These were not mere words. The EU has adopted no less than 19 packages of sanctions against the aggressor — Russia — and allocated almost $200 billion in aid since 2022.

Surely one would expect, then, the EU to condemn the U.S. unilateral attack on Venezuela in early days of 2026, resulting in an abduction of its leader Nicolás Maduro? Yet, nothing of the sort happened. In fact, the EU has already demonstrated its selective approach to the international legality when it failed to condemn its violations in Gaza half as vociferously as it did in Ukraine, shredding Europe's credibility in the Global South and among many European citizens as well.

KYIV POST – December 30, 2025 - Top 5 High-Profile Corruption Cases in Ukraine in 2025

Kyiv Post has compiled a ranking of the five most high-profile anti-corruption investigations of 2025.

Ukraine saw fewer graft scandals in 2025 than in 2024, but those that emerged proved far more explosive.

Several cases involving the inner circle of President Volodymyr Zelensky triggered major political fallout, including the resignation of Presidential Office chief Andriy Yermak. The blow was significant enough that a new head of the Presidential Office has yet to be appointed.

Most investigations were led by Ukraine's independent anti-corruption agencies, which pursued cases involving senior officials. The exposure of such cases, including those tied to the president's inner circle, showed that corruption investigations continued regardless of rank – a silver lining despite the setback.

Ukraine's fight against corruption has erupted into a dramatic confrontation inside parliament. The clash comes as President Volodymyr Zelensky travels to the United States for high-stakes talks on ending the war, just days after Russia launched massive drone and missile attacks on Kyiv. The investigation has intensified public anger at a moment when Ukraine is facing rolling blackouts, winter energy shortages, and growing pressure from allies over elections and territorial concessions. Ukraine's anti-graft agencies say the case involves an organised criminal group operating at the heart of the legislature. The scandal revives long-standing concerns over corruption that threaten Ukraine's EU ambitions and complicate Western support during the war. ...

The 59 individuals sanctioned by the EU are just the beginning. The eurocrats are only getting started with their campaign against internal dissent. Their unhinged nature is as much a function of the way they are losing the Ukraine proxy-war as also a direct result of 30 years of End-of-History megalomania in the West. Paired with the loss of the USA as a transatlantic partner, the Eurocrats are cornered. But instead of reversing course and correcting their anti-democratic actions, they are set to crack down even harder on dissent from within.

YouTube/Intel Light – December 26, 2025 - The Real Reason the EU Just Stopped the $105B Seizure of Russian Assets | Alexander Leo Smith

I was in Brussels three weeks ago for a closed-door meeting with European finance officials. Because what Europe did with $105 billion in Russian assets has triggered a chain reaction that will reshape global finance—and almost nobody understands what's really happening. In this video, we expose how the EU's May 2024 decision to seize interest earnings from frozen Russian reserves triggered Russia's surgical mirror retaliation—targeting $105 billion in European corporate assets including Volkswagen ($3.5B), Raiffeisen Bank ($2.8B), and dozens more. From the death of property rights to the acceleration of de-dollarization, we break down why this might be the greatest strategic blunder in financial history. In this video, we uncover: ...

The Royal Swedish Academy of War Sciences– December 22, 2025 – Golden Dome changes both NATO and the EU

On January 27, 2025, just a few days after taking office for a new term as President of the United States, Donald Trump signed an "Executive Order" to the US Department of Defense – now called the "War Department" – to build a missile defense system, what he later came to call "The Golden Dome".

According to a statement by the then Department of Defense (now the "Ministry of War"), the Golden Dome will "unify a range of capabilities to create a system of systems to protect the United States from air attack by any aggressor". ...

On May 8, China and Russia issued a joint statement criticizing the project for undermining the link between strategic offensive weapons and strategic defensive weapons, i.e. the very idea of a nuclear balance. Russian press spokesman Peskov said that while a decision on Golden Dome is a sovereign matter for the United States, it is also in the common interest of both countries to create a new legal framework to replace the no longer functioning nuclear arms treaties between the United States and Russia.

However, as of the end of October 2025, no preparations for negotiations on US-Russian arms control have been initiated. Donald Trump is said to have said that it might be a good idea, but without wanting to discuss the matter in more detail. On January 5, 2026, the only Russian-American arms control agreement still in force, the so-called New START agreement, expires. ...

Europe has reason to be concerned about the development. Golden Dome is only intended to protect the US's own territory and, as far as is known, not that of its allies. Europe will have to devote its resources to its own defense to a greater extent, especially to defending itself against Russian ambitions to expand its influence westward. Unless some decisive change occurs in the US in the near future, we must reasonably conclude that the US is on the verge of not having the financial resources required to continue to live up to its responsibility for our military defense within the framework of NATO. ...

NATO will be put under strain as the US has to make a huge effort to row the Golden Dome project ashore while simultaneously updating and re-equipping all of its other defenses. The US is tempted to scale back its presence in Europe. ...

DAILY TELEGRAPH NZ – December 22, 2025 - Flynn accuses CIA and NATO warmongers of working against Trump

Former US national security adviser Michael Flynn has accused elements of the US intelligence community of colluding with European intelligence agencies to undermine President Donald Trump's efforts to broker peace in Ukraine and instead push the United States toward a wider conflict with Russia.

In a post on X, Flynn claimed the CIA was "in cahoots with MI6 and others in the EU intelligence community," arguing that European NATO members were driving a pro-war agenda. "The EU aka NATO (minus the United States) desperately wants war with Russia," Flynn wrote, adding that "warmongers in our own administration as well as the Congress want perpetual f'ing war."
