Arvoisa vastaanottaja!

Alkuvuosi on saanut ennenkuulumattoman lähdön. Kansainvälinen politiikka ja diplomatia on kovalla koetuksella.

GEOPOLITIikka

*Kanadan pääministeri Mark Carney pääsi perjantaina (16.1.2026) Kiinan

kanssa niin sanottuun "merkittävään" kauppasopimukseen irtautumalla Yhdysvalloista luodakseen uuden kauppasuhteen maiden välille. Linkki 2

* Grönlannin valtauksella on uhkana "monumentaalinen" seuraus,

Islannin entinen presidentti varoittaa. "Tällä hetkellä ei ole suoraa, selkeää ja ilmeistä uhkaa Venäjältä ja Kiinasta arktisella alueella", sanoo Olafur Grimsson, Islannin pitkäaikaisin presidentti vuosina 1996–2016. Linkki 4

* Yhdysvaltain geopolitiikka on vajoamassa hulluuteen ja henkilökulttiin! Yhdysvaltalainen analyytikko Scott Ritter esittää purevan kritiikin Yhdysvaltojen geopolitiikasta. Entinen YK:n asetarkastaja uskoo presidentti Trumpin johdattavan Yhdysvaltoja kuiluun: "Näemme Trumpin käyttävän hyväkseen ihmiskunnan heikkouksia," hän sanoo. Linkki 12

* The Grayzonen päätoimittaja Max Blumenthal käsittelee haastattelussa Yhdysvaltojen hyökkäystä Venezuelaan ja sitä seurannutta sopimusten tekemistä, ryöstöä ja oikeusvaltion hylkäämistä. Linkki 12

* Ian Welsh kirjoittaa, että dollarin rooli globaaleissa valuuttavarannoissa on hiipumassa. Yhdysvaltain dollari on laskenut 50 prosentista valuuttavarannoista 40 prosenttiin. Linkki 15

MITÄ IHMETTÄ SAKSASSA TAPAHTUU?

* Valtiovarainministeri Friedrich Merz toivoo rauhaa Venäjän kanssa. "Rauhan ja vapauden on palattava Eurooppaan. On välttämätöntä löytää kompromissi Venäjän kanssa." Näin hän sanoi kauppakamarien uudenvuodenvastaanotolla Hallessa. Linkki 3

* CDU:n ulkopoliittikan asiantuntijan Roderich Kiesewetterin mukaan

Saksan tulisi harkita osallistumista eurooppalaiseen ydinaseverkostoon.

Prikaatikenraali Frank Pieper sano: "Saksa tarvitsee omat ydinaseensa. Ja ensisijaisesti liikkuvia taktisia ydinaseita." Hän korostaa, että ajatukset ovat hänen henkilökohtaisia ja yksityisiä. Linkit 7 ja 8

SUOMEN OLISI KORKEA AIKA TUKEA GAZAN TILANNETTA!

* Äärimmäisen kylmyyden vuoksi ihmisiä, joilla ei ole riittävää suojaa kuolee, kun Israel jatkaa avun ja kriittisten tarvikkeiden toimituksen estämistä aseleposopimuksen vastaisesti.

* Tohtori Ahmed Muhanna ja hänen kollegansa kohtaavat uuden hyökkäyksen, kun tuhoutunut terveydenhuoltojärjestelmä taistelee selviytyäkseen tautiaallosta ja ehkäistävissä olevista kuolemista.

* Lokakuun "tulitauon" jälkeen keskimäärin viisi palestiinalaista on tapettu joka päivä. Linkit 5, 6 ja 14

MIELENILMAUKSIA

* Suuri naisten mielenosoitus Ankarassa. Naisten elämään, vapauksiin ja saavutettuihin oikeuksiin kohdistuvien hyökkäysten syventyessä päivä päivältä naiset menivät Ankaran kaduille vihamielistä politiikkaa vastaan. Linkki 10

* Naiset osoittivat mieltään Caracasissa Venezuelassa osoittaakseen tukensa maan hallitukselle ja vaatiakseen presidentti Nicolás Maduron ja hänen vaimonsa Cilia Floresin pikaista vapauttamista. Linkki 16

* Afrikan valtiot, yhteiskunnalliset liikkeet, ammattiliitot ja poliittiset puolueet ovat vastanneet voimakkaasti USA:n toimintaan ja ilmaisseet samalla solidaarisuutta ja tukea Venezuelan kansalle. Linkki 17

UKRAINA

* Venäjän Oreshnik-rakettien käyttö oli vastaus lännen kolmeen viimeaikaiseen provokaatioon. Linkki 9

* Stephen Bryen, entinen Yhdysvaltain puolustusministerin alivaltiosihteeri kirjoittaa uutiskirjeessään Weapons and Strategy mm.: "Halukkaiden koalition jäsenten tiistaina (6.1.2026) allekirjoittama Pariisin sopimus, jonka tarkoituksena on tarjota Ukrainalle turvallisuus- ja taloustakeita, on outo sopimus. Jos se otetaan vakavasti, se saa venäläiset muuttamaan strategiaansa Ukrainassa, mikä tarkoittaa, että venäläiset saattavat hyvinkin päättää yrittää vallata koko Ukrainan." Linkki 11

- Olof Palmes kongresstal om utrikes- och säkerhetspolitik 17.9.1984

"... Precis som i umgänget mellan människor måste det finnas regler för umgänget mellan nationerna. Vi kan inte acceptera en djungelns lag, en maktens lag, på det internationella området. Vi måste ha en folkrätt där alla stater är lika inför lagen och där alla stater måste respektera de andras rättigheter.

Folkrätten är av särskild betydelse för de små nationerna. ..."

INDIA TODAY – January 16, 2026 - Did Israel conduct nuke test? Tremors near N-site spark buzz amid Iran crisis

A shallow 4.2-magnitude quake in Israel's Negev desert near Dimona has sparked chatter about a nuclear test. Dimona is where Israel's nuclear facility is located. The tremors came even as the US threatened Iran with strikes amid protests by Iranians against the Khamenei regime. Iran considers Israel its mortal enemy, and would make it a target in case of any attack.

On Thursday morning, precisely at 9 am, as communities scattered across southern Israel's Negev Desert were busy with their daily routines, the ground suddenly began to shake. Alarms blared in all directions, triggering panic and confusion among people. The chaos was hardly surprising. West Asia is on edge. Israel's tensions with Iran are running high. Days ago, the US and Iran warned each other of military strikes over the crackdown on anti-Khamenei Iranian protesters. ...

CBC – January 16, 2025 - Canada strikes tariff deal with China as global trade moves further from U.S.

Ontario premier says agreement a mistake for autoworkers, but Prairie leaders more optimistic

Prime Minister Mark Carney reached what he described as a "landmark" trade deal with China on Friday, breaking from the U.S. to forge a new trade relationship between the two countries.

The deal will allow tens of thousands of Chinese electric vehicles into the country in exchange for a break on tariffs for Canadian agricultural products, like canola seeds.

Canadian politicians had mixed responses to the agreement. Ontario's premier said the EV deal would cost Canadian workers, while his counterparts in the Prairies said it was a positive step. ...

MDR Fernsehen – 14 Januar 2026 – Merz hofft auf Frieden mit Russland

Frieden und Freiheit müssen wieder nach Europa zurückkehren. Das sagte Bundeskanzler Friedrich Merz beim Neujahrsempfang der Handelskammern in Halle. Es müsse gelingen, mit Russland einen Ausgleich zu finden.

"Und wenn es uns dann noch gelingt, dafür zu sorgen, dass Frieden und Freiheit zurückkehren nach Europa, dass wir einen Ausgleich finden, endlich auch wieder mit unserem größten europäischen Nachbarn, nämlich mit Russland – und ich sage das nicht, weil ich hier im Osten bin, das sage ich an jeder anderen Stelle in Deutschland auch: Russland ist ein europäisches Land.

Wenn es uns dann gelingt, in der längeren Perspektive mit Russland wieder einen Ausgleich zu finden, wenn Frieden herrscht, wenn Freiheit gewährleistet ist, wenn uns das alles gelingt, meine Damen und Herren, dann hat diese Europäische Union, dann haben wir auch in der Bundesrepublik Deutschland eine weitere Bewährungsprobe bestanden und dann können wir auch über das Jahr 2026 hinaus mit großer Zuversicht nach vorn blicken."

CNBC – January 14, 2025 - Seizing Greenland risks 'monumental' fallout, ex-Iceland president warns, as Trump sharpens rhetoric

The fallout [of U.S. seizing Greenland] would be on a scale that we have never seen in living memory," Iceland's former President Olafur Grimsson said.

Grimsson said that concerns about Russia or China's growing influence in the Arctic are premature.

Grimsson warned on CNBC's "Access Middle East" that "the fallout would be on a scale that we have never seen in living memory." Grimsson, the longest-serving president of Iceland from 1996 to 2016, currently serves as the Chairman of the Arctic Circle, the world's largest annual gathering on Arctic issues.

Trump has framed Greenland — an autonomous region within the Kingdom of Denmark — as central to U.S. national security, saying China and Russia were building up their influence in the strategically located minerals-rich area around the island. ...

Grimsson pointed out that concerns about Russia or China's growing influence in the Arctic were overblown. "At the present there is not a direct, clear, obvious threat from Russia and China in the Arctic," he said. ...

Al Jazeera – January 13, 2026 - At least 5 die in Gaza collapsed buildings, more deaths from extreme cold

Civil defence warns of catastrophic repercussions from the storm for Palestinians, who lack adequate shelter, as Israel continues to block aid, critical supplies in violation of truce.

... The people who died in Tuesday's stormy conditions include two women, a girl and a man, according to al-Shifa Hospital, Gaza City's largest, which received their bodies.

There were also reports of several other deaths of children and the elderly due to the cold weather.

The Gaza Health Ministry said on Tuesday that a one-year-old boy died of hypothermia overnight.

Two other children had died on Monday night due to the freezing conditions and inadequate shelter, Al Jazeera Arabic reported.

Meanwhile, Israel's military said it exchanged fire on Tuesday with six people spotted near its troops deployed in southern Gaza, killing at least two of them in western Rafah. ...

The Guardian – January 12, 2026 - No staff, no equipment, no medicine: a doctor on returning to Gaza after 665 days in an Israeli prison

Dr Ahmed Muhanna, one of the country's most senior emergency care consultants, says the scale of destruction he saw on his release brought him to tears

... While in prison, he and the other inmates were "completely cut off from the outside world", he says. When he was released he was driven over the border and through Gaza to his hospital, the al-Awda. The scale of the destruction he saw "made my skin crawl ... my chest tightened and my tears began to flow".

WELT – 12 Januar 2026 - „Das Unwahrscheinliche denken“ – CDU-Politiker bringt deutsche Beteiligung an Atombombe ins Spiel

Der mögliche Griff der USA nach Grönland könnte nicht nur zu einem Bruch der Nato führen. Damit stünde dann auch der US-Atomschutz für Deutschland zur Disposition. In der CDU gibt es daher nun Überlegungen, sich an der Finanzierung eigener Atomwaffen zu beteiligen.

Deutschland sollte aus Sicht des CDU-Außenpolitikers Roderich Kiesewetter die Beteiligung an einem europäischen Atomschirm in Betracht ziehen. An einem solchen Schirm könnte sich Deutschland „finanziell beteiligen, ohne die Führung zu übernehmen“, sagte Kiesewetter der „Süddeutschen Zeitung“. „Fachleute gehen von einer Entwicklungszeit von etwa fünf Jahren aus. Ich gehe eher von zehn Jahren aus“, fügte Kiesewetter hinzu.

In Fachkreisen wird darauf verwiesen, dass es wegen der Spannungen mit Russland etwa auch in Finnland, Schweden und Polen Überlegungen für einen eigenen Nuklearschutz gibt – die dann entsprechend mit Deutschland kooperieren könnten. ...

Der mögliche Griff Donald Trumps nach Grönland führt auch in CDU und SPD zu heiklen Debatten. Was, wenn es zum Nato-Bruch kommt und die USA dann auch den Atomschutz für Deutschland kündigen?

Brigadegeneral Frank Pieper hat seinen Beitrag sicherheitshalber als „ABSOLUT und AUSSCHLIEßLICH persönliche Meinung“ eingestuft. Das Jahr starte „brutal“, betont Pieper. Das Verhalten der USA zeige deutlich, Deutschland und Europa könnten nicht mehr verlässlich auf die USA und ihren Atomschirm bauen. Seine Folgerung: „Deutschland braucht eigene Atomwaffen.“ Und zwar in erster Linie mobile taktische Atomwaffen. „Waffen, die sich der finalen Bedrohung durch Russland entgegenstellen (können)“, so Pieper. Asia Times –January 9, 2026 - The Paris Accord means Ukraine War will continue

Like Versailles, it is a disaster for all the players

By Stephen Bryen. a former US undersescretary of defense. This article, originally published on his newsletter Weapons and Strategy, is republished with permission.

The Paris Accord, signed on Tuesday by members of a “coalition of the willing” and aimed at providing security and economic guarantees for Ukraine, is a strange agreement.

If it is taken seriously, it will convince the Russians to change their strategy in Ukraine, meaning the Russians may well decide to try and take over all of Ukraine.

The accord gives nothing at all to Russia, which was probably its intent. It has the same bad smell as the 1919 Versailles Treaty, which the US Senate rejected. Officially Russia’s strategy is to secure the goals it has set for the “special military operation.” While NATO does not accept the terminology, the Russians have operated in a framework defined below: ...

YouTube/Gegenpol - January 9, 2026 – Scott Ritter: US-Geopolitik versinkt in Wahnsinn und Personenkult! - US geopolitics is sinking into madness and a personality cult!

Scott Ritter, an American former United States Marine Corps intelligence officer, former United Nations Special Commission weapons inspector, author, and commentator. Ritter was a junior military analyst during Operation Desert Storm.

"I'm just ashamed to be an American today. I mean, I love my country... But I find the way we're behaving truly embarrassing."

In an interview with GEGENPOL, US analyst Scott Ritter delivers a scathing critique of US geopolitics. The former UN weapons inspector believes President Trump is leading the US into the abyss:

"What we're seeing with Trump is that he's exploiting humanity's failings. It's the last resort he has left, because it's not the tool you want to use when you're exploiting the baselessness of human nature, because eventually, it will backfire, and all you'll have is chaos, anarchy, death, and destruction. But that's precisely what Donald Trump is aiming for." These are the final moments of the Roman Empire."

"All I see now is a political opportunist, a narcissist, a man who has turned himself into a personality cult, a dictator. And indeed, today we have a dictator in Donald Trump. Congress will do nothing to stop this man. And we, the American people, are little more than the citizens of Rome. Just entertain us with enough blood and violence on television, but not too close. We just want to watch other people die, eat our fill, and be satisfied with the idea of potential wealth, and we'll let you do anything for that."

The US military expert urgently warns Europe to get out in time—or sink into the vortex of the USA: "I hope Europe understands this now; it's time for you to wake up. [...] I don't think Europe understands America, and I don't think America understands Europe." And today Europe will be shocked when we take over Greenland, because we will take it over.

"Whatever the future of Europe may look like, let me make one thing clear: Please stop trying to be like the United States. Do you really want to be like us? Look at this. This is your future. Start being what you are now. You have to decide what that is, but you have to be what you are. That means you have to learn to live in peace with Russia. Russia is your neighbor. How stupid is it to go to war with your neighbor? Or have you gone to war with your neighbor because you think the US is supporting you? We are not here for you. You have to live with Russia. You have to live in peace with Russia."

Drop Site News – January 9, 2026 - Israel Kills Five Children in Surge of Attacks on Gaza "Safe Zone"

Since the October "ceasefire," an average of five Palestinians have been killed every day.

GAZA CITY—Eleven-year-old Hamsa Housou lay dead on a cold metal table at the morgue in Al-Shifa hospital. Blood covered her face and the upper part of her striped pajamas as one of her relatives gently wiped her mouth and cheek with a damp cloth, crying as he did so. She had been asleep in her bed early Thursday morning when she was fatally struck by Israeli gunfire. Her family's home in Jabaliya, west of the so-called yellow line, is in an area designated as safe. ...

"Every night there is bombing, shooting, fire belts, robots. Every night. Shrapnel hits our home. What ceasefire? This ceasefire is just theater in front of the

Ian Welsh – January 8, 2026 - The horizon is not so far as we can see, but as far as we can imagine

Ian Welsh: Since 2003, he's made his living as a writer, editor, and consultant. Ian predicted the year and month of the financial crisis, lots of warnings about the housing bubble and a prediction that the next President after Obama would be a right-wing populist.

Dollar's Role in Global Reserves is Whitering Away.

There was a slow decline from 2014 to 2022, which could have just been part of normal perambulations. But from 2022 to 2025 the US dollar has dropped from 50% of reserves to 40%. That's FAST. Right now there is no alternative reserve currency, everyone's piling into gold. However trade is increasingly being done in local currencies.

This is exactly as predicted. It will continue to accelerate. Venezuela is in part an attempt to shore up the US dollar. It might make a slight bump, but it's irrelevant to the trend or larger picture. ...

The US is done. Done. Done. It will, as I keep saying, die ugly. But it is a walking corpse. This is really basic stuff. China can build infrastructure for less than 5% of the cost of America, and in less than a quarter the time. (Often 10% of the time.) This is a general Western problem, by the way, all of us are expensive and slow. Until we fix this very basic issue, nothing else matters. In fixing something this basic we will have to fix almost everything else. ...

Thousands of women took to the streets of Caracas, Venezuela on Tuesday to show their support for the national government and to demand the prompt release of President Nicolás Maduro and his wife, Cilia Flores, who were captured by United States forces last Saturday during a controversial military operation. Footage from the march shows female demonstrators carrying banners and chanting slogans defending Venezuelan sovereignty and opposing foreign intervention. Many protesters praised Maduro and Flores as leaders of the
