... "We were told that Iraq had a relationship with Al Qaeda and shared responsibility for the atrocity in New York of September 11th 2001. We were assured that this was true. It was not true. We were told that Iraq threatened the security of the world. We were assured it was true. It was not true.

The truth is something entirely different. The truth is to do with how the United States understands its role in the world and how it chooses to embody it." ...

YouTube/Times World Now – April 2, 2026 – FARMERS VS. EU: Austrian Farmers Blockade Vienna, Protests Erupt Over Cheap Ukrainian Grain Imports

Hundreds of Austrian farmers mounted on tractors brought central Vienna to a standstill on Wednesday, intensifying a wave of agricultural protests sweeping across Europe. Demonstrators blocked the historic Ringstrasse and rallied outside the Agriculture Ministry to demand an immediate halt to cheap Ukrainian imports, which they claim are "destroying" local agriculture through price dumping. The protesters also voiced fierce opposition to the EU's bureaucracy and the pending Mercosur trade deal, warning that globalist policies are ignoring the survival of small and medium-sized family farms. As tensions peaked, some farmers drew sharp parallels between current EU regulatory overreach and historical authoritarianism, while Agriculture Minister Norbert Totschnig admitted that a "flood of laws" from the European Commission has severely hampered regional competitiveness and productivity.

YouTube/Al Jazeera – March 29, 2026 - Europe Erupts in Protests | “War Criminals” Accusations Against Trump & Netanyahu

Mass protests have erupted across Europe as demonstrators accuse Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu of escalating the war with Iran. In cities known for international justice institutions, protesters marched calling the conflict an illegal war of aggression and demanding stronger action from European governments. Activists argue that bombing countries in the name of democracy violates international law, while urging leaders to take a firmer stance against escalating military operations.

The crisis is further intensified by tensions surrounding the Strait of Hormuz, a vital global shipping route affected by ongoing regional instability. While many protesters demand an immediate end to the war, counter-demonstrations have also emerged, with some groups supporting the strikes and backing political change in Iran. Across Europe — including France, Italy, and Greece — “No Kings” style rallies have also spread, reflecting broader global opposition to expanding executive power and military escalation.

People rallied from New York City, with almost 8.5 million residents in a solidly blue state, to Driggs, a town of fewer than 2,000 people in eastern Idaho, a state Trump carried with 66% of the vote in 2024.

The event's headliner was Bruce Springsteen, who performed "Streets of Minneapolis." He wrote the song in response to the fatal shootings of Renee Good and Alex Pretti by federal agents and in tribute to the thousands of Minnesotans who took to the streets over the winter to protest the Trump administration's aggressive immigration enforcement.

US organisers have estimated that the first two rounds of No Kings rallies drew more than 5 million people in June and 7 million in October. This week they told reporters they expected 9 million participants Saturday, though it was too early to tell whether those expectations were met. ...

YouTube/the Jimmy Dore Show - March 22, 2026 - EXCLUSIVE: Israeli General's Son REJECTS Israel & Supports Palestinians! w/Miko Peled!

Jimmy interviews Miko Peled, an Israeli-American activist and former Israel's Special Forces soldier whose grandfather signed Israel's Declaration of Independence and whose father was a general in the IDF—yet who now rejects Zionism and advocates for a single democratic state in all of historic Palestine.

Peled explains that he broke from his family's ideology after realizing that Israel was born from the Nakba, a campaign of ethnic cleansing and genocide against Palestinians, and that the IDF was never a "moral army" but an instrument of apartheid. He exposes the myth that Palestinians have equal rights in Israel, detailing how multiple bureaucracies, secret police control, and water apartheid (Palestinians receive 3% of the water for 7.5 million people) prove otherwise.

Peled concludes that Zionism is white supremacist settler colonialism, and that the only solutions are to either support genocide or dismantle the regime and replace it with a free Palestine—predicting that like South Africa, the apartheid state will collapse, and people will choose life over nuclear suicide.

Globalbridge – 20. März, 2026 - Der übersehene Bündnisfall: Wie ein EU-Beitritt der Ukraine die europäische Sicherheitsarchitektur verändern könnte

Während ein NATO-Beitritt der Ukraine als rote Linie gilt, wird die EU-Aufnahme als humanitärer Akt dargestellt. Dabei schafft sie einen juristischen Mechanismus, der Europa in einen direkten militärischen Konflikt mit Russland ziehen könnte – mit weitreichenden ökonomischen und sicherheitspolitischen Folgen.

Die unterschätzte Beistandsklausel

Im öffentlichen Diskurs über die europäische Integration der Ukraine konzentriert sich die Debatte nahezu ausschließlich auf eine mögliche NATO-Mitgliedschaft. Diese wird – zu Recht – als hochproblematisch betrachtet und von den meisten NATO-Mitgliedern abgelehnt. Ein EU-Beitritt hingegen wird überwiegend als politische Geste europäischer Solidarität interpretiert, deren sicherheitspolitische Dimension als vernachlässigbar gilt. Diese Einschätzung beruht auf einem fundamentalen Missverständnis der vertragsrechtlichen Grundlagen der Europäischen Union.

Mit dem Vertrag von Lissabon wurde die EU 2009 mit einer Beistandsklausel ausgestattet, die in Artikel 42 Absatz 7 des EU-Vertrags verankert ist:

„Im Falle eines bewaffneten Angriffs auf das Hoheitsgebiet eines Mitgliedstaats schulden die anderen Mitgliedstaaten ihm alle in ihrer Macht stehende Hilfe und Unterstützung.“ ...
